

PAUL BUNYAN AND BABE THE BLUE OX, KLAMATH, CALIFORNIA

You'll find statues of the legendary lumberjack in several American states. At the entrance to the Trees of Mystery in Klamath, California, the statue of Bunyan is 49 feet tall. Beside him stands Babe, the ox that seemingly never recovered from the Winter of the Blue Snow. The Babe statue used to blow smoke from its nostrils—until too many kids got scared. Heavy rain was a challenge in 2007, and Babe's head fell off. It has now been replaced.
